For Sale—100-acre farm, located on the Norfolk & western railroad between Pamplin and Evergreen and adjoining the "Rocks Church" property. For further particulars address H. W. Terrell, 32 North 9th Street, Richmond, Va. 10 27 3t

Smith—Purdum

At the Methodist parsonage here this morning Mr. S. Guy Smith and Miss Mary Purdum were united in marriage. The contracting parties are very popular young people and have a host of friends who wish them a long and happy life. They will move into the groom's new house just east of town, and we are glad to know that he will continue to farm

They left on the westbound train for Hagerstown, Md., McKees Rock, Pa., Washington, Richmond and other points. They will be at home here after November 10

Doss—Agee

On Wednesday, Oct. 20, Miss Gladys M. Agee and Mr. C. Douglas Doss, both of this county, were quietly married at the Baptist parsonage here by Rev. East. On account of recent bereavement in the groom's family, only a few friends were present to witness the ceremony. The bride wore a suit of midnight blue broadcloth and furs, with accessories to match, and carried a big bunch of bridesroses. The bride is one of our prettiest and most attractive young girls. The groom is a young farmer, and we are glad to say that he will still farm in his old home county. Both are popular. We extend our best wishes to them for a long and happy life

NOTICE !

The balance of the month of November I will be in the Bank of Appomattox, where you can settle your taxes.

Tell your neighbor.

R. F. BURKE,
County Treasurer.

Evergreen

One of the saddest funerals and burials ever held in this community took place Sunday afternoon when the remains of Mr. Hermon Richardson were laid to rest in the cemetery of Piney Ridge church. The services were conducted by Rev. A. K. Lambdin. The words of the minister were beautiful and tender. May God's hand guide the widow with her five little children

Rev. Lambdin will preach his farewell sermon at Evergreen on Sunday at 3 p. m.

Miss Madian Lee is spending some time in Lynchburg

Mr. Lyman will be at the Baptist church again Saturday night with his beautiful pictures. Come and help a good cause

The friends of Mr. Lloyd Lewis are glad to hear he is getting on nicely

Notice To Trespassers.

All persons are warned not to hunt, fish or trespass in any manner upon the lands of the following persons, under penalty of being prosecuted to the full extent of the law:

R. L. Fitzhugh, at Evergreen, and 2 miles east of Evergreen

A. H. Clement, near Appomattox, Va.

[Persons desiring to give notice to trespassers may do so under this head for 50 cents. Send name and postoffice, and your name will be printed 3 months for 50 cents.]

We also furnish cards for posting at five cents each.

BRIDGES

T E Owen (3 interim warrants) for bridge and fills at North's creek	750 00
W R Reynolds, for bridge at Miss Ida Jones'	190 00

MISCELLANEOUS

Times-Virginian, printing	98 80

The usual monthly allowances were made for poor house and paupers.

L E Smith, agent of the Board to look after the building of the bridge across North's creek between H D Flood's and Oakville, made report to the Board that said bridge had been built, according to plans and specifications, and in a good workmanlike manner, and had been accepted by him, whereupon said bridge is accepted by the Board and the payments made to contractor are approved.

S E Anderson, agent of the Board to attend to having the bridge at Miss Ida Jones' rebuilt, reported that said bridge had been built, but that he had not had an opportunity to inspect it and accept the same, and upon suggestion of said S E Anderson the Board ordered that a warrant for the contract price of said bridge, to-wit, $190, be drawn in favor of W R Reynolds, the contractor, and turned over to Mr. Anderson to be delivered to said Reynolds, when said bridge has been inspected and accepted by him.

Mr. R C Jones, State Forester, having made a very liberal written proposition to the Board for a co-operative system of forest protection, whereby he will establish a county forest warden and two local wardens in each magisterial district for the fall season of 1920 and for the spring and fall seasons of 1921, for a total cost of $180 to the county; and the Board deeming the protection and preservation of the timber lands of the county of considerable importance, accepted the proposition of the State Forester and made the appropriation of $180, or so much thereof as may be necessary to be used as outlined in the written proposition of said State Forester for the fall season of 1920 and for the spring and fall seasons of 1921, and the Clerk of the Board is directed to so advise the State Forester.

We want this Bank to be different—

To breathe a different spirit, to reflect a different attitude than is said to prevail in some financial institutions.

We desire that this shall be a bank of willing, cheerful service—broad in its views, generous in its sympathies, helpful in its strength—conservative only when conservation is necesssry to maintain that strength.

We want the conscientious interest that we hold for the welfare of our customers to be the magnet which will attract and hold the patronage of a discriminating and appreciative public.

We desire that this spirit shall prevail in every department and be reflected in the helpful attitude of every employee.

This has been our endeavor in the past. It will continue to be our aim and purpose in the future.
